Alex:

See the docket notification below that the Court's attempt to mail you a copy of the attached order failed and was returned.

We have previously advised you that the Court ordered a status report by Jan. 4 and for discovery to be completed by January 21. Last week, you indicated that you would have counsel and respond to our discovery requests by last Friday. Neither of those things have happened and we are heading into a holiday weekend so please advise if you have counsel and when we will get a response to our document requests.

SARAH NETBURN, United States Magistrate Judge:

As stated on the record at the discovery conference on October 22, 2018, the Court extends the discovery deadline until Monday, January 21, 2019. This deadline will not be further extended. The parties are directed to file a joint letter on Friday, January 4, 2019, updating the Court on the status of discovery. The letter should also include a proposed briefing schedule for any summary judgment motions. In addition, plaintiff is encouraged to locate counsel in the next 30 days. Both parties may engage in discovery during this time period. The parties may contact the Court should they believe further settlement discussions would be productive.

SO ORDERED.

SARAH NETBURN
United States Magistrate Judge
